PIPERSON MORAN AND THE MOONLIGHT.
Come with me, my darling,
We'll walk upon the sand,
And I'll quote you a rhyme,
That I read by this hand:
With a lute and a lark,
And see it gleam, Jane,
Up the grass hasn't crept
the moonlight yet.

The pathway through the meadow
Will lead down to the shore,
And the water will be clear,
E'en as they fell of yore.
The tide has been low,
The tender grass is wet,
And the grass hasn't crept
the moonlight yet.

The busy day is ended,
The city's work is done,
Sweet revels have begun;
To the moonlight hour,
The Morgan has crept
the moonlight yet.

Come with me, my sweetheart,
And let us fare away,
Among the pebbles play,
And the stars are over,
The beautiful Janet,
The Morgan has crept
the moonlight yet.

William Jackson, whose name was mentioned in connection with the fight, called at the McLelland home yesterday, and asked the members of the family that he had no hand in the assault. It is now thought he was the victim of a couple of hooligans, whose pose was robbery, supposing that Mr. McClelland had left the Distillery with his week's wages.

The Louisville Evening Post—nearly as well as unusually correct in all things—on Saturday last printed a graphic account of the explosion of the steamer Sultana near Memphis during the War, by which nearly 2,000 Federal soldiers coming home from Southern prisons were killed. The account of the explosion was excellent, but the artist made an egregious blunder when he pictured the Sultana as a steamwheel. She was a big sidewheel craft. Two of the survivors of that awful disaster are yet residents of this city—Messrs. George M. Clinger and William Carver.

Yesterday the Excel had in tow a shantyboat, which it was taking up the river, and about noon at the mouth of Limestone creek the steamer literally ran over the smaller boat, sinking it. A man who was on the shanty escaped. The boat was later brought out on top of the water all right.

The Anti-Slavery movement was led off at the meeting on Wednesday by Mr. A. Wadsworth. The lecture was classical, the speaker showed a true appreciation of his subject, he clearly portrayed each character of the great tragedy, he showed himself a great student of Shakespeare, and one could follow him and clearly see each character. A very professional man who attended, and who had seen Booth, Barrett and Irving in "Hamlet," and who had heard many expositions of this great tragedy, was enthusiastic in his praise, and said it was the finest he ever heard.

KENTUCKY FLASHES.

ALLEGED BLOPERS.

Mrs. O. W. Marshall, of Nicholasville, Was Pursued By Her Husband and Arrested in Louisville.

Louisville, Ky., June 18.—Mrs. O. W. Marshall and E. T. Calman were arrested here Monday afternoon for being fugitives from justice and will be taken back to Nicholasville, Ky., for trial. The arrest promises to disclose some startling facts.

The couple were taken into custody at the Fifth Avenue hotel, where they had registered as E. T. Calman and mother. The arrest was made at the instance of Mr. John F. Marshall, husband of the woman, who charges his wife with infidelity and man with fornication.

The woman is aged 26. The husband had traced the Lexington woman, so he claims, they had registered as man and wife.

Miss Marshall, it is claimed, gathered her farm in Tennessee for $4,000, and the husband now believes it was done in preparation for the flight.

Mrs. Marshall made a statement, saying that her husband was a drunkard and that the treasury will go to New York to see Assistant Treasurer Jordan about the matter. Under present conditions the checks drawn by army officers or civilian officers in the Philippines are not considered valid. Your check is not endorsed as valid at the subtreasury.

If the checks are sent through the clearing house they are paid. It is proposed to organize a sort of clearing house in Manila, by which all checks and drafts may be endorsed as valid in Manila, and their signature considered valid in New York.

At present the chief paymaster in Manila keeps on hand from a million to a million and a half in currency with a guard of soldiers. This money is stacked in a small room, accessible only to the paymaster responsible for it. Commissaries and quartermasters experience the same difficulty as paymasters, and while they do not keep as much cash on hand as the pay department, it is more difficult than the officer care to be responsible for.

An official of the war department, who has given the question a great deal of thought, says that the next congress will be asked to establish a subtreasury at Manila, and to open a mint there for the coining of Philippine silver.

A MINT IN MANILA.

Next Congress Will Be Asked to Open One for the Coining of Philippine Silver.

ALSO TO ESTABLISH A SUBTREASURY.

The War Department Purposes to Establish a Sort of a Clearing House in That City.

Great Difficulties Encountered Among Officers and Others in Obtaining Money on United States Drafts and Checks.

Washington, June 18.—The war department is endeavoring to reach an arrangement with the treasury department which will avoid as far as possible the difficulties now encountered by army officers and civilian employees in the Philippines in obtaining money on United States drafts and checks. Gen. Bates, of the pay corps, after consulting with the treasury, will go to New York to see Assistant Treasurer Jordan about the matter. Under present conditions the checks drawn by army officers or civilian officers in the Philippines are not considered valid.

MAD MULLAH EXPEDITION.

The British Under Col. Swaney, Defeated the Enemy, with a Loss of 500 Men.

London, June 18.—A dispatch to the foreign office from the consul general of Somaliland says that the Mad Mullah expedition had very heavy fighting May 28.

The flying column of mounted infantry under Capt. Merewether struck the British force at 4 a. m. after a night march and captured 5,000 head of cattle, killed one important chief and captured another, covered 300 miles, fought a sharp action, and returned to its base all $\frac{1}{2}$ a hour late.

The force under Col. Swaney, under Col. Swaney departed for Edinburg, June 3, leaving MacNeill, with 300 men, to guard Zaritha. Swaney's column advanced against the Mullah's base. In the meantime the Mullah, with 3,000 followers, attacked Zaritha the next day, but was driven off by Mac'Neill, with a loss of 500 men. The British in Zaritha had ten men killed and also wounded.

The Mullah is now cut off from his base and a decisive action is imminent.

The arrest was made Monday afternoon on complaint of Raymond R. Carew, an author, living in the Glen Echo, Md., home, that Carew had been swindled out of $100,000. Take a cup of Arbuckles' Coffee and a cup of the "cent-a-pound-cheaper" kind. One taste of each will prove to you that the reason Arbuckles' costs a little more is because it's worth more. It's selected with greater pains, roasted with greater care, packed with greater skill. It comes to you as fresh as when it left the roaster. Not a particle of its strength or flavor lost. Cheap coffee lacks both strength and flavor.

ARBUCKLES' Roasted Coffee

is cheaper in the end than other coffees because it makes more cupsful to the pound and gives far greater satisfaction.

With each package of Arbuckles' Coffee you purchase a definite part of some useful article— which is yours on presentation to our Notion Dept. of a certain number of signatures cut from the wrappers. You'll find a list of the articles in each package.

It Takes a Remedy of Uncommon Merit to Draw the Unqualified Praise of a Successful Practicing Physician.

Dr. W. Bates of Corfu, N.Y., states: "A most remarkable case has come under my hands of late and has fully convinced me of the wonderful power of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills over cases of the nerves."

"A lady who was treated for two years for epilepsy by two doctors was given up to die. I found that her sickness was not epilepsy, but nervous troubles, due to menstrual derangements, and prescribed for her Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills and a meatless diet and at bed-time. Since that time she has not had a single bad spell. Her health has rapidly improved, she has gained about 15 pounds in weight, and is now able to state that Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills have saved her life and restored her to health."

Mrs. Fawcett of Marietta St., St. Clairsville, O., says: "I have had Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills, can I commend them to others as a good sound reliable nerve and general tonic. When I got the box of the pills I was comprising of 100 pills, weak and failing, shriveling the shoulders—rheumatic in type—digestion not over good as usual. The effect of the medicine has been very satisfactory indeed. I have had no pain since taking the pills, when my mind is steady and strong—my physical strength and energy back and my sleep sound and natural."

See also the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase are on every box. Price to cents a box.—I like Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. I was nervous, excitable, unable to sleep, and did not take the pills for a long time, when my mind was steady and strong—my physical strength and energy back and my sleep sound and natural."

"The use in my case finally demonstrated the value of Doan's Kidney Pills. I suffered more or less from kidney trouble for twenty years, steadily becoming more persistent as time passed on. My attention was called to Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a box at J. James Wood & Son's Drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets. The treatment greatly benefited me. That is my only regret that I did not know of this valuable remedy years ago, for had such been the case I would have been saved much suffering."
